The quality of the material guarantees durability and resistance. You have a wide choice of several colors thanks to the Pantone color chart allowing you to show off your brand identity and customize the product as you wish.

Sublimation marking offers quality four-color personalization. It is possible to print all logos and colors on one or both sides. A team of graphic designers is in charge of the final page proof.

Practical and light, you can hang a badge holder on them for your cards or exhibitor badges, for example.
